Drawing on its heritage as the former European Head Office of the Eastman Kodak Company, The Kodak has undergone a major and extensive refurbishment.

Enjoying a prominent Covent Garden / Kingsway position, the building combines period style and contemporary workspace.

The Kodak has been rejuvenated, remodelled and repositioned whilst minimising environmental impact.

The building delivers a flexible market leading format including Shell & Floor, Cat A and fully fitted office space across eight floors.

A HQ BUILDING

The Kodak has been comprehensively refurbished to create one of the most exciting new office developments in Covent Garden.

Celebrating many period features in what was Kodak's original European headquarters, it offers a contemporary home for modern business.

NEW ENTRANCE

The Kodak benefits from an impressive new entrance with the reception relocated onto Keeley Street.

FLEXIBLE FINISHES

THERE ARE A RANGE OF FLOOR FINISHES THROUGHOUT THE BUILDING, ALLOWING OCCUPIERS TO DIRECTLY INFLUENCE THE STYLE OF THEIR WORKSPACE.

This approach to the refurbishment enables The Kodak to minimise waste and thereby limit the environmental impact of the project.

Floors can however be completed to any required finish subject to agreement.
